Brief

Hangzhou is a city full of cultural heritage. On the banks of West Lake, Baidi Bridge tells the feelings of Bai Juyi, and Quyuan Fenghe shows the summer style. The incense smoke curls in Lingyin Temple, and the statues on Feilai Peak are exquisite. There are also century-old shops in Qinghefang, carrying the memory of history. The Qiantang River tide is surging, and Liuhe Pagoda stands quietly. Hangzhou's scenic spots and culture are like a gorgeous painting, which makes people intoxicated and linger.

Sights

West Lake 西湖

Hangzhou West Lake is a treasure gifted by nature. In spring, willows are swaying and peach blossoms are blooming; in summer, lotus leaves are reaching the sky and lotus flowers are reflecting the sun. The Su and Bai embankments span the blue waves, and the Broken Bridge with Remaining Snow and Three Pools Mirroring the Moon are well-known.

⑤ Nine Creeks Smoky Trees 九溪烟树

Stepping into the Nine Creeks and Trees, it feels like entering a paradise. Nine streams meander and converge, and the gurgling sound of water is like a lively musical note. The trees along the stream are lush and green, and each season presents a wonderful scene. There are flowers in spring, thick shade in summer, golden and red in autumn, and plain clothes in winter. When the clouds and mist are light, the hazy poetry overflows, making people intoxicated and unable to return.

Eating

Hangzhou cuisine is like a poem from the south of the Yangtze River, with a long lasting charm. West Lake vinegar fish has a sweet and sour taste, and the tender fish seems to dance lightly on the tip of the tongue; Longjing shrimp, shrimp meets the fragrance of tea, fresh and refreshing. Dongpo pork is bright red and attractive, fat but not greasy, soft and tasty. There are also cypress wrapped in scallions, fried dough sticks and scallion segments wrapped in spring pancakes, crispy and fragrant. Every bite hides the gentleness and fireworks of Hangzhou.

◆ West Lake Vinegar Fish 西湖醋鱼

The West Lake grass carp is selected and fed by starvation and cooked. The dish is bright red in color, tender in meat, and has a sweet and sour fragrance, which is unique.

◆ Dongpo Pork 东坡肉

The pork is carefully selected with fat and lean parts, and is stewed over a slow fire, making it bright red and attractive. When you eat it, the fat is soft and glutinous, the lean meat is crispy but not dry, and the salty and slightly sweet taste spreads on your taste buds. Every bite is the ultimate praise for the food.

◆ Longjing Shrimp 龙井虾仁

Longjing shrimp is undoubtedly the shining pearl of Hangzhou cuisine. The shrimp peeled from fresh river shrimp is crystal clear and white as jade. Paired with new Longjing tea before the Qingming Festival, the aroma of tea slowly permeates the shrimp while stir-frying over high heat. When you eat it, the shrimp meat is tender and chewy, and the fresh tea flavor lingers, just like taking the brightness and freshness of the spring day in West Lake into your mouth.

◆ Beggar' s Chicken 叫花鸡

Select tender chicken, fill it with rich spices, wrap it with lotus leaves, and then paste it with yellow mud and bake it. When it comes out of the oven, the yellow mud peels off, the fragrance of lotus leaves overflows instantly, the chicken is tender and boneless, and every fiber is full of mellow flavor.
